The Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts for the Year Ended 31 December 2022

Church of Scotland Congregation Reference Number: 010103 Scottish Charity Reference Number: SC011728

The trustees present their annual report and financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 to the accounts and comply with the charity's trust deed, the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published on 16 July 2014.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's kingdom throughout the world. As a national church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish in Scotland through a territorial ministry. The Church of Scotland cooperates with other churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Edinburgh: Portobello and Joppa Parish Church has, like so many charities and other organisations, worked to adapt to the continual changes prompted by Covid and its aftermath. Events have forced us to respond imaginatively and creatively to an increasingly altered world that has seen not just a pandemic, but war in Europe, a cost of living crisis and significant challenges to the national church. Our community life has nevertheless continued and perhaps even flourished.

Below are presented a number of headings corresponding to those of the teams which play such a vital part in the life of the church.

Conveners: A Conveners Team, membership of which is drawn from those Elders who oversee one of the operational teams, helps to provide a smaller forum for discussion and preparation for our Session, the group that guides the running of the church. The Conveners have continued to provide an opportunity for a more thorough examination of issues that challenge the church. But the Conveners have also seen great opportunities and supported these. Foremost among these are the continuation of the Growing Young initiative, experimentation with a reconfigured Sunday morning worship pattern and the installation of live-streaming equipment for the sanctuary.

Worship and Education: We continued to offer a variety of services during the year. After experimentation with worship styles and patterns, we began offering three worship services on a Sunday: 9.30am (quiet and reflective), 10.30am (informal and intergenerational) and 11.15am (traditional). These have been complemented by Celebration Services to which all members are invited to attend. The installation of our live streaming equipment has allowed us to keep in touch with those members who cannot attend and provides a means to share our worship with others through YouTube and Zoom.

Thanks to the efforts of our Family and Youth Worker, we were able to continue our provision for the younger generations. A variety of offerings are provided in order to encourage participation and engagement: Sunday Stars, Godly Play, Breakfast Club, Breakfast Club 2.0, Messy Church and Muddy Church. The Associate Minister has also re-started meetings with students in the local high school.

Many of the initiatives have stemmed from our participation in the Growing Young initiative. Apart from the worship pattern mentioned above and the support of a Family and Youth Worker, the Rolling Cafe has been an unequivocal success. Tea, coffee and conversation are available from 9.30am on Sunday to 12.30pm. This allows people to linger longer and for parents to catch up when the children are in Sunday Stars. Further discussions centered round Growing Young will continue into 2023.

Outreach: Our outreach and concern for others continues. Fundraising and support has continued for a variety of charities: Christian Aid, Fresh Start, Bethany Christian Trust, Wilson Memorial Food Bank, Edinburgh Direct Aid. Much has also been raised for Ukraine. We also consider our hosting of many community group and organisations to be a vital part of our outreach as well. The following are but a few: Coffee Time for new mums, Carers and Toddlers groups, three sections of the Boys' Brigade, Rainbows/Brownies/Guides, Drama Group, Junior Drama Group, the Guild, and weekly Coffee Clubs.

Pastoral Care: Through the efforts of the staff, the Pastoral Care team, Elders and many members of the congregation, we have managed through phone calls, cards, distribution of magazines and doorstep visits to keep in touch remarkably well with people in the orbit of the church. Most importantly, however, the Session Clerk has helped to spearhead the organisation of the pastoral care. It was recognised that, after covid and the changes to the way people interact, a team of people were required to care for people in the congregation. This new approach is in its early stages and the involvement of many people is of utmost importance for the pastoral life of the congregation.

Communication: The importance of online communication continues to be noted. Thanks to a team that had ensured an excellent church website and a public Facebook page, these resources continue to be put to good use. A weekly e-newsletter, combined with traditional provision of magazines and other communication as required, has allowed the channels of information and feedback to remain open. We as a congregation are most fortunate to have been blessed with a variety of talents and skills to allow these initiatives to work.

Property: Thanks to a committed group of people, led by our Property Convener, and an energetic caretaker, the fabric of the church is in good condition. Some of the ideas for improvement, such as better access and lighting, have been on hold as we focus on other aspects of church life. We hope to make progress in some of these areas during 2023.

Finance: More details on finance will be provided elsewhere in the accounts. Suffice it to say that our Finance Convener and our Treasurer have spent significant time and energy to ensure that our finances were as healthy as possible during the past year. They, alongside our Church Administrator and our Finance Team have ensured that our finances are in good order. However, we recognise that significant challenges remain and continue to be vigilant.

Wider Church: We continue to take an active part in the wider church. The minister has convened a team tasked with a far reaching re-structuring of the churches in the Presbytery, involving proposals for 40% ministry cuts and the release of approximately 20% of the fabric. There are strong connections with other local denominations and these are evident in local initiatives: the local clergy meet regularly; there have been gatherings for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity; and a Carol Pilgrimage in December. Most importantly of all for the future, Edinburgh Presbytery have asked Portobello & Joppa to begin conversations with two local Church of Scotland congregations: Meadowbank Church and Willowbrae Church. These other two churches are proceeding towards a union and, once that is accomplished and bedded in, there will continue to be co-operation with them in furthering the Presbytery mission plan within the east of the city.

Achievements and Performance

Our numbers remain relatively healthy in the current climate and we have taken some risks on a few new initiatives. Thanks to the work of so many people, we have a sense of our financial strengths and challenges, and our buildings are in good shape. We have, through the efforts of so many, kept in touch with those who are less able to use technology. And, thanks to the Growing Young programme and the efforts of those who help with our online presence, there is momentum for the future. The 'Rolling Sunday' has in some senses been our most significant adaptation to recent changes and its effectiveness will continue to be monitored. Our finances, buildings and our online presence are more clearly now than ever seen to be necessary tools: they are the means by which we reach out to one another and to the wider community. These will be of utmost importance as the upcoming year unfolds.

It would seem, therefore, that we have performed well during recent years of flux and change: we have adapted and adjusted. This approach is vital for flourishing in the future.

Risk Management

The Trustees recognise their responsibility to assess and manage potential risks to the charity. This involves identifying the major risks which the charity faces and taking appropriate mitigating actions. The identified risks include the safeguarding of young people as well as the wider health and safety of members, worshippers and other users of the church building and its activities. In addition, there are risks in relation to the fabric and contents of the church buildings, the manse and the church flat.

To mitigate these risks, policies are in place and named individuals appointed to coordinate and/or oversee the safeguarding, health and safety of individuals and organisations using the church buildings. Appropriate insurance cover has been taken out to cover risks relating to people, property and contents in line with Church of Scotland requirements.

Financial Review

Income

The principal income of the Church is generated through monthly standing orders from members. This is augmented by weekly offerings at the Church Services on the Sunday, donations for the use of our various halls, fundraising and income tax recovered on Gift Aid.

The total income represents the income designated to the Congregational Fund. This sum is exclusive of legacies received which the Trustees invest in the Church of Scotland Investors Trust, in relation to which only the income is treated as designated income for statistical purposes. In 2022 Total Income amounted to £224,006 (2021 £236,048).

In the past year Congregational Income (Offerings) amounted to £147,011 (65.72% of total income) in comparison with last year's income of £142,425 (60.34%). The sum of £29,183 (13.05%) was received from Income Tax Received from Gift Aid during the year against the 2021 figure of £27,846 (11.80%).

Donations for the use of Halls amounted to £18,444 (8.24% of total income) in comparison with the 2021 figure of £12,476 (5.27% of total income).

The Congregational Fund also received £50.00 (0.02% of total income) (£14,155 2021 6.00%) towards the Family Ministry.

Investment Income was £6,835 (3.06% of Total Income) in comparison with the 2021 figure of £6,178 (2.62%). The majority of investments are held in accounts with the Church of Scotland Investment Trust Deposit, Income and Growth Funds which in turn produce interest to help in the funding of the Family Worker.

Fundraising monies are normally earmarked for Fabric Repairs. The amount raised this year amounted to £939 (2021 £1,351).

Funding was received from the Church of Scotland General Trustees for the General Fund amounting to £22,483 (10.05% of Total Income) (2021 £22,890 (9.70%)). This was to assist in the payment of property running expenses. The Fabric Fund also received nil (2021 nil) towards the Health and Safety building works required on the properties. (No major building works were undertaken).

During 2022 funding was received through the Government Furlough Scheme to assist in the payment of salaries amounting to nil (0% of total income) (2021 £10,131 4.29% of total income).

Expenditure

Total Expenditure is the expenditure designated to the Congregational Fund. In 2022 this amounted to £203,910 (2021 £211,237).

Far and away the largest expenditure is that of the Ministries & Mission allocation by the central church of £104,362 being 51.18% of all expenditure. This calculation is based on the Income received during the past three years 2019, 2020 and 2021. Part of this contribution is credited to the National Stipend Fund, which bears the costs of all Ministers' stipends and employers contributions for national insurance, pension, housing and loan fund. In 2021 we were asked for £114,438 (54.18% of total expenditure).

Overall

The total resources expended in the day to day running of the Church decreased from £211,237 in 2021 to £203,910 this year.

The General Fund showed a surplus of £22,097 (£31,143 surplus in 2021). Three legacies were received in 2022 amounting to £2,300 (2021 £6,332).

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustee's policy to hold a minimum reserve of approximately six months expenditure including designated funds. At the end of the year the Church held cash funds of £369,423 (2021 £343,001).

Investments

The Church holds a number of investments with Church of Scotland Investors Trust, as noted in note 9 to the accounts amounting to £691,877 (2021 £787,062)

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of its Deed of Constitution.

Administrative Details

Primary leadership comes from the office bearers (the Minister, Stewart G. Weaver; the Session Clerk, Michael Craig; the Treasurer, David Stocks) as well as a Conveners' Team and the Kirk Session.

Organisational Structure

Portobello and Joppa Parish Church is a part of the Church of Scotland, which covers the geographical entirety of Scotland. It is Presbyterian in structure and thus depends on a system of courts, from the General Assembly through Presbyteries to the local Kirk Session. The trustees are the members of the Session.

We are using a Unitary Constitution, in which Session sets priorities and makes major decisions, whilst a number of teams carry out the necessary tasks. All teams are led by an elder and these elders are listed in Trustees. It is not felt necessary to include all team members as Trustees. The teams are as follows: Finance; Fabric; Worship and Education; Communication; Social; Pastoral and Outreach. They are convened by an Elder of the church and each team will have on it a mixture of members of the congregation and elders. The teams are allowed enough latitude for them to carry out their function but with the structure whereby any major decisions, as defined by the Session, will be brought to the Session for discussion and agreement.

In order to encourage maximum participation from session members and from the congregation, there is a 3 year rotation for conveners and for members of the team. This rotation allows wider participation and also variety of viewpoints which means that any decisions reflect more fully the views of the congregation.

In essence, this structure allows us to retain a view of our overall aims while encouraging participation in the execution of the necessary details.

Trustees' Responsibilities in Relation to the Financial Statements

The charity trustees are responsible for preparing a trustees' annual report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

The law applicable to charities in Scotland requires the charity trustees to prepare financial statements for each year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to

- 1. Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- 2. observe the method and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- 3. make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- 5. prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operational existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responible for the maintenance and integrity of the charity and financial information on the congregation's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial satements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Michael Craig Session Clerk

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Portobello and Joppa Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, Balance Sheet, Accounting Policies and notes 1 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with these records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanation from trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would require an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

- which gives me reasonable cause to believe that any material respect the requirements: to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
- 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Edinburgh: Portobello and Joppa Parish Church Accounting Policies

The principal accounting policies, which have been applied consistently in the current and preceding year in dealing with items which are considered material to the accounts are set out below.

Basis of preparation

The accounts (financial statements) have been prepared under the historical cost convention with items recognised at cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant note(s) to these accounts. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) issued on 16 July 2014 and the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended).

The charity constitutes a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

The trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about the Charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

Fund accounting

Funds are classified as either restricted funds or unrestricted funds, defined as follows.

Restricted funds are funds subject to specific requirements as to their use which may be declared by the donor or with their authority or created through legal processes, but still within the wider objects of the charity.

Endowment funds are funds which have been given on the condition that the original capital sum is not reduced, but the income there from is used for the purpose defined in accordance with the objects of the charity.

Unrestricted funds are expendable at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the objects of the charity. If parts of the unrestricted funds are earmarked at the discretion of the trustees for a particular purpose, they are designated as a separate fund. This designation has an administrative purpose only and does not legally restrict the trustees' discretion to apply the fund.

Income

Income is recognised when the charity has entitlement to the funds, any performance conditions attached to the item(s) of income have been met, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Donated services and facilities

Donated professional services and donated facilities are recognised as income when the charity has control over the item, any conditions associated with the donated item have been met, the receipt of economic benefit from the use by the charity of the item is probable and that economic benefit can be measured reliably. In accordance with the Charities SORP FRS 102 the general volunteer time of congregation members is not recognised.

On receipt, donated professional services and donated facilities are recognised on the basis of the value of the gift to the charity which is the amount the charity would have been willing to pay to obtain services or facilities of equivalent economic benefit on the open market; a corresponding amount is then recognised as expenditure in the period of receipt.

Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the Bank.

Edinburgh: Portobello and Joppa Parish Church Accounting Policies - continued

Fixed Assets

The charity has the right to occupy and use for its charitable objects certain tangible fixed assets, including the Church, halls and manse, vested in the Church of Scotland. No consideration is payable for the use of these assets. Expenditure incurred on the repair and maintenance of these assets is charged as expenditure in the Statement of Financial Activities in the period in which the liability arises.

All tangible fixed assets costing in excess of £10,000 having a value to the charity greater than one year, other than those acquired for specific purposes, are capitalised. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis to write off the cost or initial value, less residual value, of tangible fixed assets over their estimated useful lives:

Fixtures, fittings and office equipment 4 years (up to 2021, 7 years)
The Trustees agreed at their meeting of 3rd October 2022 to depreciate over 4 years rather than 7 years.

Investments

Fixed asset investments are stated at market value at the balance sheet date. Unrealised gains and losses represent the difference between the market value at the beginning and end of the financial year or, if purchased in the year, the difference between cost and market value at the end of the year. Realised gains and losses represent the difference between the proceeds on disposal and the market value at the start of the year or cost if purchased in the year.

Taxation

Edinburgh: Portobello and Joppa Parish Church (Church of Scotland) is recognised as a charity for the purposes of applicable taxation legislation and is therefore not subject to taxation on its charitable activities. The charity is not registered for VAT, therefore expenditure includes irrecoverable input VAT.

<sup>15.</sup> In common with all congregations of the Church of Scotland the congregation benefits from the contributions made by volunteers who give their time and talents willingly for the benefit of the Church. The areas of congregational life which rely on the contribution of volunteers are many and varied and much of the activity would be unable to continue were it not for the commitment shown.
